THEME

There is a certain commodity that strikes a note of reverent awe in the heart of man. It commands his respect, his allegiance, and his deepest affection. It has been a thousand things to a thousand men but at King's High it is called TRADITION.

And well might we know its worth, for King's enjoys a great wealth of TRADITION. Ours is a heritage enriched and enlivened by other people of other times.

But beyound this, King's boasts the greatest and longest TRADITION the universe has ever known.

For we are the King's Knights. Ours is the TRADITION that makes the slave a child of God. Let us never falter, but fight for our great heritage, until we leave the battle fondly in the hands of future Knights.

DEDICATION

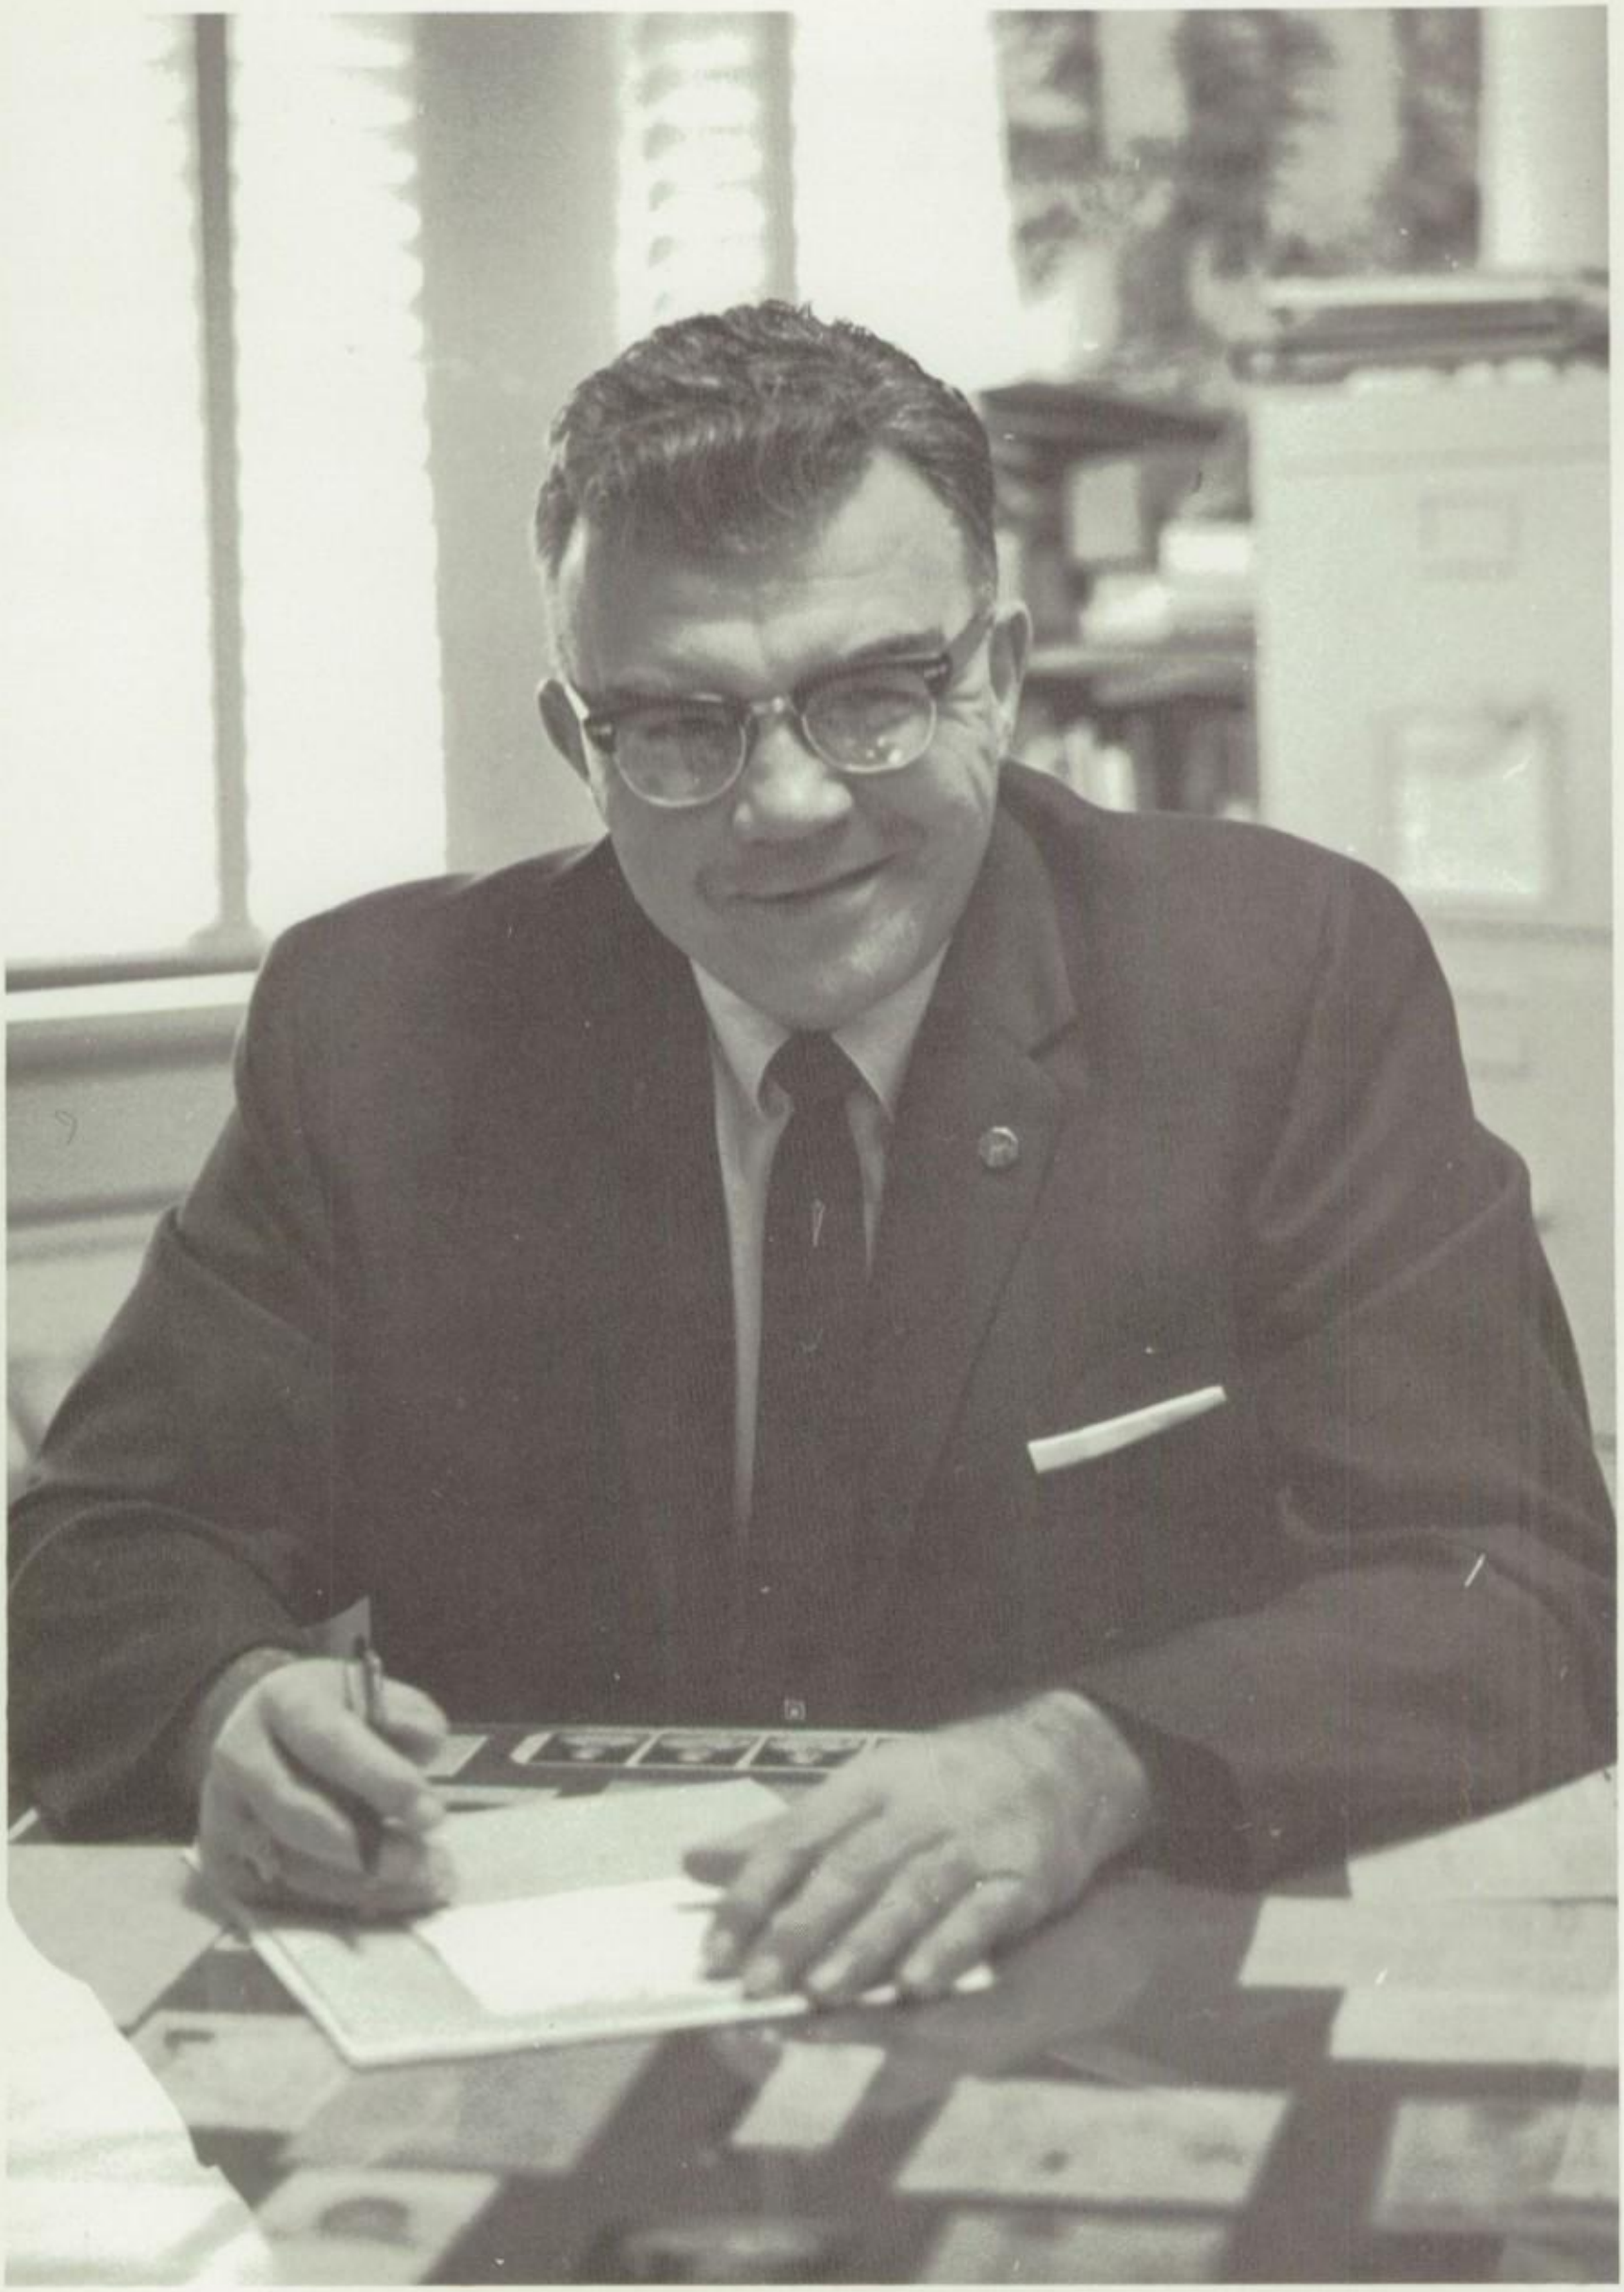
"Respect is what we owe;
Love, what we give."

Philip James Bailey

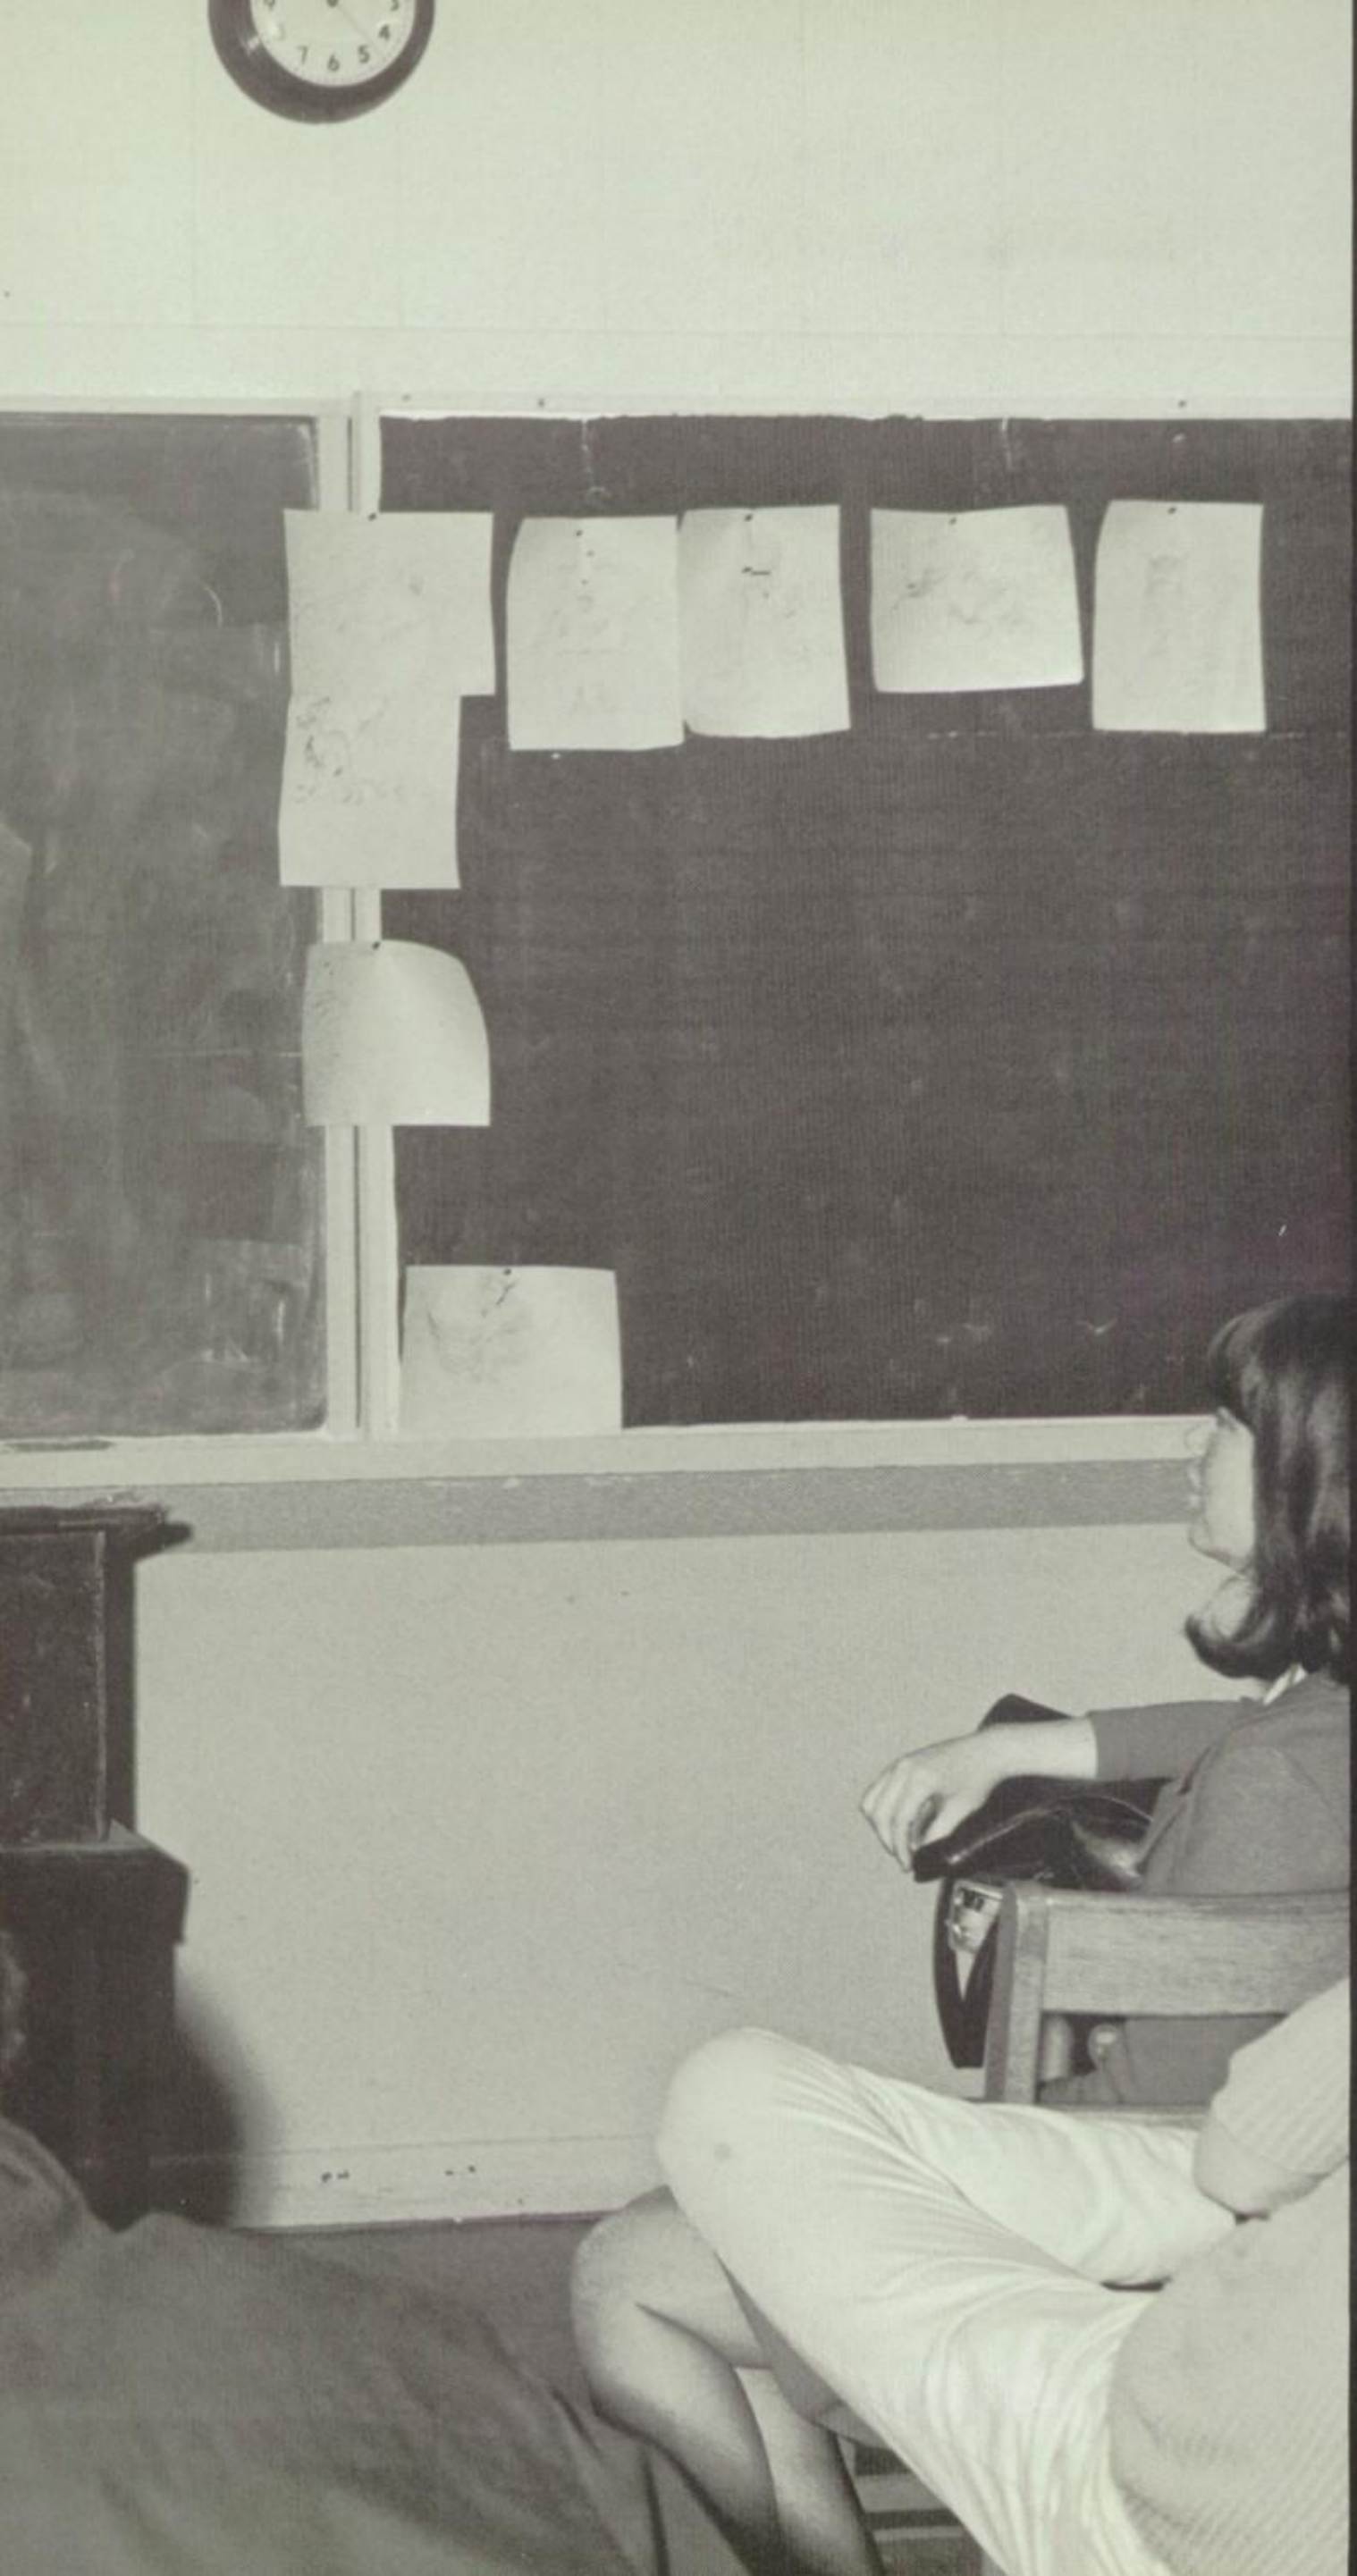
He commands our deep respect for the man he is. Because he has done the Lord's work in the Lord's place with courage and vigor . . . Because he strives for perfection in everything he undertakes . . . Because his job is never done without free sacrifice.

He wins our love because he gives more than that which the common man gives. No student can walk the halls of King's High without sensing the individual concern he feels for each of us. But above all else, he deserves our deepest admiration because he has asserted the high ideal of a King's student by living that ideal himself.

And so, our profound respect and our love in Christ to you, our Principal, Mr. Lather.



RICHARD R. LATHER



STAFF

PRINCIPAL

Congratulations to the Class of 1967. You are now beginning a new era and our prayers and best wishes go with you.

Today is here. I will start with a smile and resolve to be agreeable. I will not criticize. I refuse to waste my valuable time.

Today in one thing I know I am equal with all others — time. All of us draw the same salary in seconds, minutes, and hours.

Today I will not waste my time because the minutes I wasted yesterday are as lost as a vanished thought.

Today I refuse to spend time worrying about what might happen — it usually doesn't. I am going to spend time making things happen.

Today I am determined to study to improve myself, for tomorrow I may be wanted, and I must not be found lacking.

Today I am determined to do the things that I should do. I firmly determine to stop doing the things I should not do.

Today I begin by doing and not wasting my time. In one week I will be miles beyond the person I am today.

Today I will not imagine what I would do if things were different. They are not different. I will make success with what material I have.

Today I will stop saying, "If I had time —" I know I never will "find Time" for anything. If I want time, I must make it.

Today I will act toward other people as though this might be my last day on earth. I will not wait for tomorrow. Tomorrow never comes.

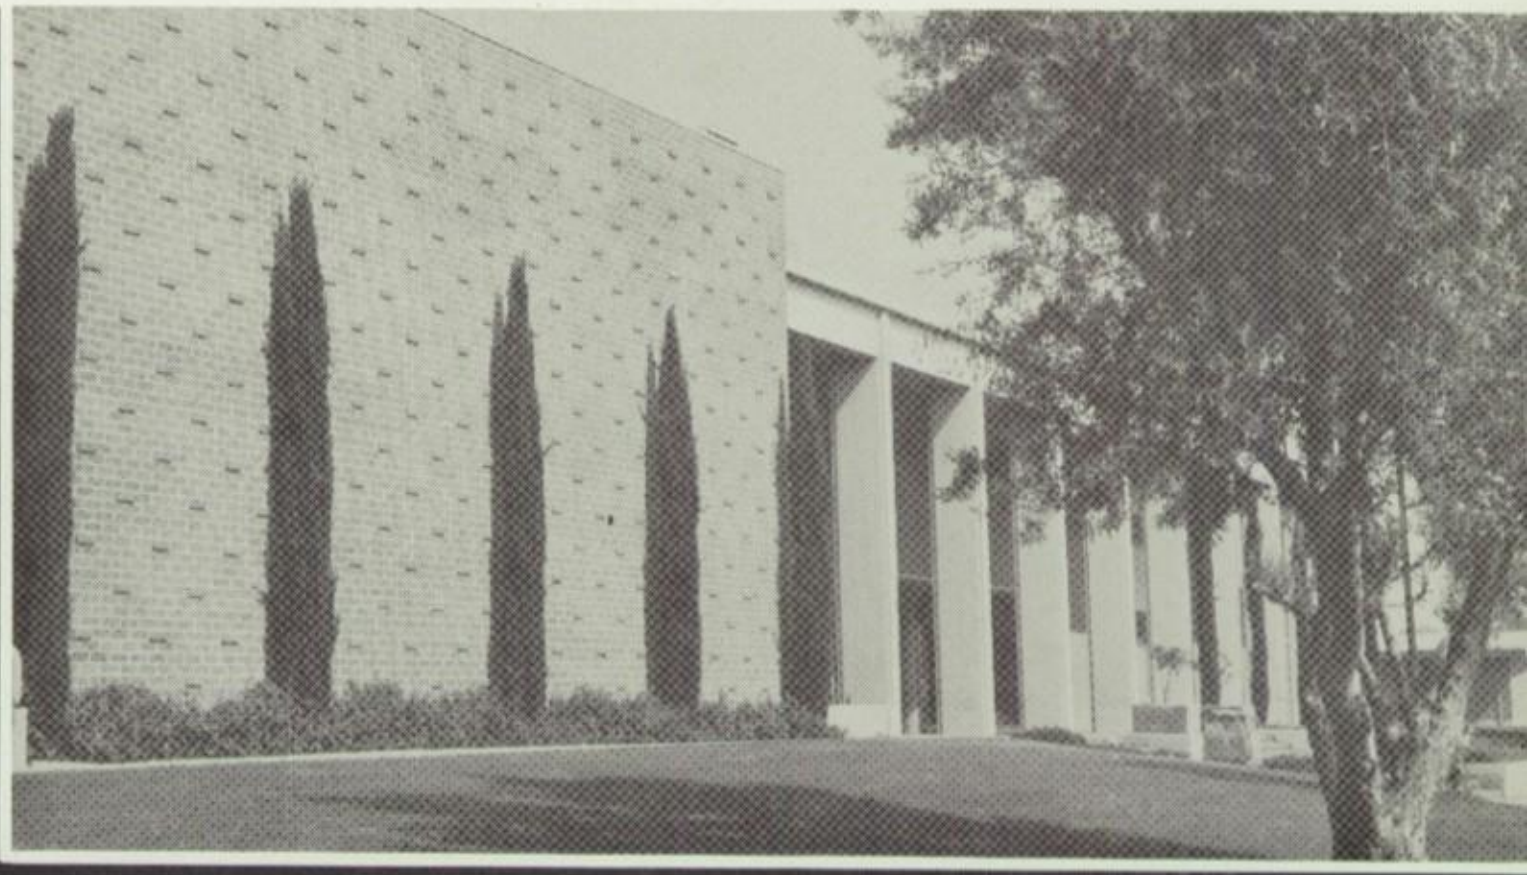
ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE — HIGHEST SPIRITUAL STANDARDS

Approximately 20 majors and programs are available in the six academic divisions. In addition, specialization is also available within certain majors. For example, in history one may select an emphasis in Far Eastern, Western European, American, or Latin American.



Sutherland Hall is one of the many major structures on campus. It contains 17 classrooms, faculty and administrative offices, and the 800-seat Ethel Lee Memorial Auditorium.

An effective and highly regarded professor, Dr. William Bass, Ph.D., University of Southern California and B.D., Fuller Theological Seminary is Chairman of the Division of Humanities and Professor of Philosophy.

The Division of Humanities at Biola College embraces the departments of English, Foreign Language, Library Science, Linguistics, Philosophy, and Speech. Through the writings of such men as Plato and Ayer, and Sophocles and Eliot a student of the humanities gains a critical insight into the knowledge of the world of men and ideas.

Biola College is accredited with the Western Association of Schools and Colleges. In addition, with accreditation through the Collegiate Division of the Accrediting Association of Bible Colleges, Biola students receive from two to three times more Bible and doctrine than other comparable Christian liberal arts colleges require.
